Career Exploration in the Classroom

by Rebecca Harms

As technology has changed both the way businesses hire employees and the way in which job seekers locate potential employers, it only makes sense that schools now incorporate this new technology to prepare students for the workforce. There are many ways to incorporate labor market data into the classroom, and with nearly all information available at www.NebraskaWorkforce.com, it is easily accessible to both teachers and students.

This article includes ideas for use with lesson plans and suggestions for homework assignments which set out clear and easy-to-understand instructions for accessing occupation, wage, and other labor-related information on the Workforce Development Website.

Brain Drain? Graduate Outcomes for the University of Nebraska at Kearney

by Mary Findlay

Do recent graduates remain in Nebraska? How much do recent graduates earn, by major and degree? Are graduates in certain majors more likely to work in the state? These and other questions are answered in the following article.

What we know is that 69% of the 2003–2004 University of Nebraska at Kearney graduates were employed in Nebraska in the first quarter of 2005. Overall, 65% of bachelor's degree graduates were found working in Nebraska, while 84% of those with a master's degree or higher were employed here.

Bachelor's degree graduates in the operations management and supervision field of study had the highest estimated annual earnings of $35,437. The business administration and management, general field of study had the highest number (150) of bachelor's degree graduates and the highest number (111) of people working in Nebraska. This information comes from the Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages.

Industry Developments

By Bridget Allison, Mary Dezort, Jodie Meyer, and Janet Oenbring

Overall, statewide non-farm industry employment growth has remained consistently higher this year than it was in the past five years. Preliminary estimates of statewide July employment (953,966), based on a statewide sample of 4,909 Nebraska businesses, indicate the service-providing sector had largest July '05-July '06 increases in Education and Health Services, which added 4,234 jobs; Professional and Business Services, which added 3,094 jobs; and Leisure & Hospitality, which added 3,016 jobs. Most jobs were lost in Natural Resources and Construction (-1,379 jobs), mainly in the Construction of Buildings sub-sector (-1,230 jobs or -12.0%).

In the Lincoln Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA), the largest over-the-year increases were in Professional and Business Services (+1,508 jobs or +8.6%) and Education and Health Services (+981 jobs or +4.2%). The largest over-the-year decrease occurred in Manufacturing, with a loss of 443 jobs.

In the Omaha MSA, the largest over-the-year increases came from Leisure and Hospitality (+3,515 jobs or +7.9%), Government (+2,817 jobs or +4.9%), and Education and Health Services (+2,617 jobs or +4.1%). The two industries in Omaha to lose over-the-year employment were Natural Resources and Construction (-993 jobs or -3.6%) and Information (-603 jobs or -4.5%).

Natural Resources and Construction

Industry employment stood at 49,895 in July. With summer the prime time for construction, statewide employment increased slightly in July (+817 jobs or +1.7%), although over the year the industry lost 1,379 jobs.

In the Lincoln MSA, employment hovered around 9,074 in July, although in the past year the Specialty Trade Contractor sector lost 491 jobs or -8.9%. The Omaha MSA employment was 26,308 in July. The annual Omaha MSA employment increased the most in the Building Equipment Contractor sub-sector (+318 jobs or +4.3%), while a noticeable decrease occurred in the Construction of Buildings sub-sector, which lost 1,176 jobs or -24.2%.

Manufacturing

Statewide July employment level was 104,393. The industry is up 2,577 jobs (+2.5%) from July 2005. The Lincoln MSA employment stood at 14,814 in July, which is below the previous two years'. Omaha MSA industry employment increased during the past five months to peak at 33,784 in June and then drop to 33,447 in July.

Trade, Transportation, and Utilities

July employment was 202,805 statewide. Over the year under Wholesale Trade, the Merchant Wholesalers, Nondurable Goods is up 1,156 jobs (+6.7%). Likewise under Retail Trade, Gasoline Stations increased the most over the year by adding 584 jobs or 6.4%, but Automobile Dealers lost the most jobs in the same period (-677 jobs or -8.2%). Furthermore, Transportation, Warehouse and Utilities increased employment the most in General Freight Trucking, which added 1,667 jobs (+7.5%).

Information

Statewide employment fell to 19,992 in July. The greatest impact on statewide employment came from the Omaha MSA, where employment fell significantly in the Internet Service Provider sub-sector, which lost 432 jobs (-7.0%) over the month and 391 jobs (-6.3%) over the year.

Financial Activities

In July, statewide employment rose to 67,332 following the largest over-the-month increase since 1998 (+1.7%). Over the year, employment has risen by 2,435 jobs (+3.8%), and the majority of the July over-the-year increase came from the Finance and Insurance sub-sector, which added 2,027 jobs (+3.7%).

The Lincoln MSA employment reached 13,433 jobs in July, after adding over-the-year increases from 1.8% to 9% each month since July of 2003. The Omaha MSA employment was 37,954 in July.

Professional and Business Services

Statewide employment dropped to 100,341 in July. Over the year, Professional, Scientific and Technical Services increased by 2,675 (+7.3%), with most gains coming from Accounting and Tax Preparation (+1,106 or +25.4%). In Administrative and Support Services, the largest over-the-year gain came from Employment Services (+1,097 or +8.8%), but an over-the-year loss occurred in Business Support Services (-735 or -5.9%).

Over-the-month employment in the Lincoln MSA was unchanged at 19,121, although over-the-year employment grew by 1,508 jobs largely due to increases in both Professional, Scientific and Technical Services (+497 or +6.2%) and Administrative, Support, Waste & Remediation Services (+975 or +13.5%).

Hours & Earnings

July 2006

News & Announcements

The Labor Market Regional Review publications contain information on the demographics, labor force, industry employment, and industry and occupational employment projections for the area. The information contained in these publications helps to paint a more complete picture of what is happening in Nebraska's local economies. These publications are helpful to economic developers, local chambers of commerce, business owners, job seekers and other individuals seeking information about the local economy in their area.

The Regional Review publications can be viewed or downloaded in portable document format (pdf). Publications will be added to the website as soon as they are completed. To order printed copies or CD ROMs, please contact the Labor Market Information Center at 402.471.2600 or LMI\_NE@dol.state.ne.us.

The following Regional Reviews are available as of October, 2006:

- Omaha Consortium (Douglas, Sarpy, and Washington Counties)
- North Platte MSA (Lincoln, Logan and McPherson Counties)
- Scottsbluff MC (Scottsbluff and Banner Counties)
- Fremont MC (Dodge County)

Labor Area Unemployment Statistics (LAUS) has completed the 2005 benchmark of data. Revised data, for the years 2000 through 2005, has been published and is available on the LMI website.
